Hello,

The cost of $1,000.00 for a cannabis event is too much. $500.00 is more reasonable because you still have to pay for permits to allow consumption and purchase of cannabis at your event. The initial cost of $3,000 for a permit to put on a certain amount of events is too much for the average minority small business trying to get into the cannabis business. The equity assistance is for next year's license that's helpful.

Thank you,

Lisa Best
